

Colonization and Independence in Africa: Teaching about Historical and Contemporary Africa with the Choices Program

Hosted by Boston University's African Studies Outreach Center

Facilitated by Mimi Stephens, Director of Professional Development,
Choices Program, Brown University

Monday, October 7, 2020 7-8:30 pm ET

Join the Choices Program and BU's African Studies Center on a Zoom webinar that will examine the student readings, lessons, and videos found in the Choices Program's 10-day curriculum unit, Colonization and Independence in Africa. We will experience a lesson or two and discuss ways to implement the curriculum in your classroom. We'll also take a brief look at two other curriculum titles—Nigeria: History, Identity, and Change and Freedom in Our Lifetime: South Africa's Struggle.

PDPs provided

At the end of the webinar, participants will receive a three-week free license to the digital edition of one of these curriculum titles.

To register, click here.

For more information, email africa@bu.edu.

