Name:_____

EU Summit: Preparations

Country: Leader:
Instructions: Your group has been called on to represent a European leader at an EU summit. Summit will consider the situation with Greece, a country that suffered from the 2008 financial cannel and was bailed out by other European countries. The contract for the bailout will soon expire, an Greece cannot yet repay its debts. If Greece (or any eurozone country) goes bankrupt, other count will have to bear the burden of its debts and the value of the euro currency will decrease. This contave economic repercussions for the entire eurozone. But the Greek government does not want to down on any more government spending, because this is very unpopular with voters. There is a good of concern surrounding the situation and some experts have suggested that Greece may have leave the European Union. Your group should use the information in your leader's profile to answer the following questions and suggest a solution that you believe your leader would support. In a the minute presentation, a spokesperson from your group will briefly describe your assigned country out your suggested solution, and explain why you think your leader would have the opinion you presenting. You should be prepared to answer questions from other groups.	risis d ries ould cut great e to ver hree-
Questions: 1. Is your country in the eurozone? How might this affect how its government feels about Greece faulting on its loans?	de-
2. Does the profile suggest anything about public opinion in your country regarding the EU or ausity measures? If so, how might this affect your leader's position on the situation with Greece?
3. How do you think your leader would view the following and why? a. Greece stopping austerity measures and defaulting on loans while in the EU:
b. Greece leaving the EU and/or eurozone:
c. Greece being forced to reduce its government spending to get an extension on the bailout:
4. What solution do you think your leader would propose?	