Monitoring the Situation

Instructions: In the coming weeks, you will continue to follow events surrounding the confrontation between the United States and North Korea. Each week you will consider two to three news sources and write a short two-or-three-sentence update in Part I below. A news source might be an article, a news video or audio clip, or a photo slideshow. Make sure that the sources you explore are current (created within the previous seven days). After your second update, answer the questions listed in Part II.

Part II: Analyzing the Situation

1. What major developments have occured in the past several weeks?

2. What have been the responses of different people and groups in the United States, such as the U.S. Congress, important politicians, or the public?

3. What have been the responses by leaders of North Korea? Other countries? The United Nations?

4. Which news sources did you find most useful in researching this topic? Which were the least useful?

5. What do you think is the best possible outcome to this situation?
