

Monitoring Ukraine in the News

Instructions: In the coming month, you will continue to follow the events in Ukraine. Each week you will consider two to three news sources and write a short (two or three sentences) update in Part I below. A news source might be an article, a news video or audio clip, or a photo slideshow. Make sure that the sources you explore are current, that is, created within the previous seven days. After you complete the research for your fourth update, answer the questions listed in Part II.
