

Name: _____

Country Profile: Protests in North Africa and the Middle East

Instructions: Use the internet or other resources you have to fill in the boxes below about your assigned country. Be prepared to share your responses with your classmates.

Country Name: _____

What type of government does this country have?

Who is the leader of the government? How long has the leader been in power?

What is the relationship between the United States and this country?

Protestors

Who is protesting?

What do the protestors want?

Media

Have the internet and social media (Twitter, Facebook) played a role in the protests?

How has the news media covered the protests?

International Response

How has the United States government responded to the protests?

How has the international community responded?

Government Response

How has the government of this country responded to the protest?

Have the protests resulted in violence or death?

Have the protests led to changes in the country?