Monitoring the Election

Instructions: In the coming weeks, you will continue to follow the events surrounding the 2016 election. Each week you will consider two to three news sources—each from a different media outlet—and write a short two-or-three sentence update in Part I below. A news source might be an article, a news video or audio clip, or a photo slideshow. Make sure that the sources you explore are current, that is, created within the previous seven days. After your second update, answer the questions listed in Part II.

Part II: Analyzing the Situation

1. What major developments have occurred in the past month?

2. What have been the responses of different people and groups in the United States, such as the U.S. Congress, the Republican or Democratic Party, people from other political parties, important politicians, the media, or the public?
