Looking at U.S. Foreign Aid

Instructions: Examine your photos and answer the following questions for each. Your group will be asked to share its impressions with the class. Keep in mind that photos cannot give you a complete picture of U.S. foreign aid programs, and you should be careful about drawing conclusions from the photos.

1. Describe the photo (the location, architecture and landscape, what is happening, etc.). If there are people in the photo, what are they doing? How would you describe their appearance (gender, age, expressions, body language, clothing, etc.)? How would you describe the types of interactions people are having? If people are working, what types of jobs do they have?
2. How does this photo relate to what you know about U.S. foreign aid (types of aid, regions, goals, etc.)?
3. What clues does this image offer about U.S. foreign aid (decision makers, recipients of foreign aid, countries affected by crises, etc.)? Can you learn anything new about U.S. foreign aid from the image?
4. What questions does this photo raise for you about U.S. foreign aid?
