

African Perspectives in World History
A Choices Program Workshop
Co-sponsored by Boston University's African Studies Outreach Program
June 28-29, 2018

Location: Room 101 in Brown University's School of Professional Studies Building,
200 Dyer St., Providence, RI
Draft agenda, subject to change

Thursday, June 28, 2018

- 8:30 Doors open for coffee and browsing of materials
- 9:00 Introduction and goals of the program. Intro to Brown University's Choices Program and the Colonization and Independence in Africa unit
- 10:00 Break
- 10:15 Selected Lessons from the Colonization and Independence in Africa Unit
- 11:30 Lunch and scholar presentation: Algeria's Struggle for Decolonization
Dr. Jennifer Johnson, History Dept., Brown University
- 1:15 Break
- 1:30 Working with the Case Studies in Colonization and Independence in Africa:
Kenya, Ghana, Congo, and Algeria
- 2:30 Break
- 2:45 Resources from Boston University's African Studies Outreach Center

4:00 Program ends

Optional informal gathering for dinner on your own

Friday, June 29, 2018

8:30 Coffee and doors open for browsing of materials

8:45 Introduction to the Nigeria: History, Identity and Change unit

10:15 Break

10:30 Demonstration of Nigeria Resources
Boston University's African Studies Outreach Center

11:00 Assignment and Prep Time for the Nigeria Options Role Play: Should the East Secede?

11:45 Lunch provided by the Choices Program

12:45 Content Presentation on Nigeria, Presenter and topic TBA
Boston University's African Studies Outreach Center

2:15 Break

2:30 The Nigeria Options Role Play Activity and Debrief

3:45 Evaluations and Wrap Up

4:00 Program Ends