

South China Sea: Monitoring the News

Instructions: You will continue to follow events in the South China Sea. As you look for updates, find valid news sources and write a short update (2-3 sentences). A news source might be an article, a news video or audio clip, or a photo slideshow. Make sure that the sources you explore are current (created within the previous week or two). After you complete the research for your third update, answer the questions listed in Part II.

Part I: Monitoring the Situation

Update 1

Date:

Sources:

Update:

Update 2

Date:

Sources:

Update:

Update 3

Date:

Sources:

Update:

Name: _____

Part II: Analyzing the Situation

1. What major developments have occurred?

2. Have international organizations or governments of other countries done anything to help address this issue? Explain.

3. Which news sources did you find most useful in researching this topic? Which were least useful? Why?

4. What do you think should be done to address this issue?