

Teaching about Contested International Issues

June 17-18, 2019

Location: Casper College, Casper, WY

Union University Building, Room 315

DRAFT as of May, 2019

Monday, June 17, 2019

8:15 Doors open for coffee and browsing of materials

8:30 Introduction to the Choices Program, QFI and the Wyoming Geographic Alliance

9:00 Choices Approach for Teaching About Contested International Issues

10:00 Break

10:15 The Middle East: Questions for U.S. Policy unit

11:45 Lunch provided

12:45 The Options Role Play: What should U.S Policy be Towards the Middle East?

3:00 Program ends

Tuesday, June 18, 2019

8:15 Doors open for coffee and browsing of materials

8:30 Introduction to QFI and Wyoming Geographic Alliance Resources

10:00 Break

10:15 Additional Choices Program Curriculum Units on the Middle East
Iran Through the Looking Glass: History, Reform, and Revolution
Empire, Republic, Democracy: Turkey's Past and Future
The U.S. in Afghanistan
A Global Controversy: The U.S. Invasion of Iraq

11:45 Lunch

12:45 Teaching About Contested Historical Issues
Nigeria: History, Identity, and Change Choices Unit

1:50 Break

2:00 Free Resources from the Choices Program Teaching with the News
Syrian Refugees: Understanding Stories with Comics
Refugee Stories: Mapping a Crisis

3:00 Program ends

Program contacts:

Mimi Stephens, Mimi_Stephens@brown.edu

Craig Cangemi, ccangemi@qfi.org

Germaine Wagner, gkwagner@outlook.com

